DEACON'S TRACK

A "deacon" in the Bible is one who models Christ-like character in a servant capacity (1 Timothy 3:8-13). This program is designed to train servants to be Christ-like and have a strong biblical foundation.

The Deacon's Track is for those who are serious about developing a relationship with Jesus Christ, increasing their knowledge of the Bible, having a campus experience, and developing great relationships with other Christian young people.

The target group for the Deacon's Track are those who wish to have a Bible College experience but would not meet the academic entrance requirements and who wish to gain vocational experience.

Students in the Deacon's Track take all the same courses as other students in the Foundations for Life Certificate academic program. However, the homework load is about 1/4 of the academic track. Each 2 credit course only assigns 10 hours of homework over its duration (ie. a semester). This means that taking a full Deacon's Track course load would require about 4-5 hours of homework a week. Many assignments will have options that work for your learning style. Upon completion of all requirements, students would receive the Foundations for Life Certificate - Deacon's Track.

FOUNDATIONS FOR LIFE CERTIFICATE - DEACON'S TRACK (31 CREDITS)

The Foundations For Life program is designed as a foundational discipleship year, which will equip the student with a solid Biblical basis from which to pursue a career, vocational training, or university studies. The focus is on personal Christian growth, a foundational understanding of the Bible, and life application.

3	Electives*

*NOTE: It was decided that Deacon's Track students will receive the same credits for OMP as the Academic Track students. So, in order to obtain the 3 additional credits needed for their program, Deacon's students will need to take 1 elective/semester. This will give the students 1 extra credit at the end of their program.

NOTE: Technically, the Freshmen Ministry Practicum and the Outreach Ministry Practicum are electives. So, auditing this practicum and replacing the core credits needed with an alternate elective is possible, although highly inadvisable, considering that all students are required to attend these practicums, whether or not they choose to audit the assignments.

"GREEN COURSES" & GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

"Green Courses" (named after their colour on the class schedule) are courses taught collectively to multiple levels - each level with its own syllabus. Example: Gospel & Letters of John has separate syllabi for Jr./Sr., 4th Year, and Deacon's Track students, though all attend the same class.

There are nine "Green Courses" in total, offered on a rotational basis to 2nd, 3rd, and 4th year students.

Students pursuing their 4th year degree are only permitted to take 6 at a Jr./Sr. level. If they end up taking all 9 courses, 3 must be taken at a 4th year level. This is to prevent students from slipping through the cracks and taking all the rotational courses at a lower level before formally being in their fourth year.

Students may opt to take one 4th year course per year, or take all 4th year courses at the 4th year level.

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM

The numbers used in the course titles indicate the following:

- The two letters indicate the field of study:
 - BI - Biblical Studies
 - TH - Theological Studies
 - CM - Christian Ministry
 - GE - General Education

MU - Music
PR - Practical Experience

- A dash ("-") is used after the two letters only to indicate a "Green Course" taught collectively to multiple levels - each level with its own syllabus. Example: Gospel & Letters of John has separate syllabi for Jr./Sr., 4th Year, and Deacon's Track students, though all attend the same class.
- Typically, the first digit indicates the level at which the course will normally be taught (1000 courses are year one, 2000 are year two, etc.) There are a few exceptions to this rule (ex. Theology III - Deacon's Track). NOTE: Electives are taught at a Junior level. Courses taught at a Jr./Sr. level have course requirements half-way between these levels. We have chosen to designate these as 3000 courses.
- The second digit indicates:
 - a) For Bible courses - what testament they are in: Old Testament courses will have a 0 as the second number. New Testament courses will start with a 1 as the 2nd number.
 - b) General Studies - if the second number is a 0, it is a core or required course. If the number is a 1, the course is a Bible or theology elective. If the number is a 2, the course is a general elective.
 - c) Other courses - if the second number is a 0 it is a core or required course. If the number is a 1, it is an elective course. (NOTE: some courses don't follow this protocol previous to Fall 2022)
- The third number will be unique in order to differentiate it from other courses.
- The fourth number indicates how many credit hours the course is.

NOTE: This numbering system is for courses offered from 2020-2021 onward. For an explanation of course designations for previous years, see prior catalogues.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

The academic administration maintains the right to change course offerings and requirements listed in this catalogue, and to withhold course offerings if less than six students are registered.

COURSES OFFERED EVERY YEAR

Year One Core Courses

BI1013 (BI1012 - Deacon's Track) Pentateuch - 3 Hours (2 Hours - DT)

This class provides an introduction to the first five books of the Old Testament. These books are known as the Pentateuch (Greek) or the Torah (Hebrew). There will be special reference to their background, history, contents, and major teachings. This class intends to highlight the abiding significance of these books as the foundation of God's redemptive relationship with the world and the Law that Jesus came to fulfill not abolish. One cannot understand the New Testament without understanding the Old Testament.

NOTE: 2019/2020 this course was BT115

BI1113 (BI1112 - Deacon's Track) Synoptic Gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke - 3 Hours (2 Hours - DT)

This course is a thorough-going study of the three so-called synoptic Gospels of Matthew, Mark and Luke, which they wrote for Jews and Gentiles, all who would believe that Jesus is the prophesied Christ, the Creator God in human flesh. The Gospel writers record the LORD Jesus' first coming in the flesh to announce the Gospel of His Kingdom to Israel, and to establish the prophesied New Covenant for Israel and all nations with His blood.

NOTE: 2019/2020 this course was BT114: Life of Christ

BI1123 (BI1122 - Deacon's Track) Acts & Pauline Epistles: Eph.-Thess. - 3 Hours (2 Hours - DT)

This course helps the students to appreciate profound importance of the book of Acts and the Letters of the Apostle Paul. As well, equipping them to know, interpret and apply Acts, and Paul's letters to the Christian life and the life of the church.

NOTE: 2019/2020 this course was BT124: Letters of Paul

TH1013 (TH1012 - Deacon's Track) Theology I: God and the Bible - 3 Hours (2 Hours - DT)

This course provides the foundation for further theological thinking by introducing and delighting in God and his revelation to humanity, especially through the Bible.

NOTE: 2019/2020 this course was BT113

TH1023 (TH1022 - Deacon's Track) Approaching the Bible - 3 Hours (2 Hours - DT)

Though the Bible is made up of 66 books, it is one story—God's story. As you embark on your Bible college experience, it is important to understand how the Bible fits together.

NOTE: 2019/2020 this course was BT123

TH1033 (TH1032 - Deacon's Track) Understanding the Bible - 3 Hours (2 Hours - DT)

The Bible is at the same time both the most loved and best-selling book of all time. It has been used wonderfully in many settings and poorly/inappropriately in others. Much of the less than stellar use of Scripture comes from misunderstanding how to interpret it and, therefore, apply it. This course begins the process of learning to interpret the Bible correctly, so it can be applied appropriately and taught accurately.

NOTE: 2019/2020 this course was BT125

CM1013 (CM1012 - Deacon's Track) Apologetics/Evangelism - 3 Hours (2 Hours - DT)

This course helps students appreciate the majesty of the gospel and equip them to live in a confident faith which expresses itself in evangelism.

NOTE: this course was also available as an elective for upperclass students in 2020/2021

CM1023 (CM1022 - Deacon's Track) Ethics - 3 Hours (2 Hours - DT)

Decision-making in a post-Christian era is becoming more and more complex. This course teaches a Christian approach and perspective to making ethical decisions with confidence. An answer can be found to the most challenging of circumstances—using Biblical principles and precedents as well as the guiding of the Holy Spirit.

NOTE: 2019/2020 this course was GE122: Ethics & Culture

GE1023 (GE1022 - Deacon's Track) Spiritual Formation & Psalms - 3 Hours (2 Hours - DT)

This course will frame the idea of Spiritual Formation within the context of Romans 8:29, "For those God foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters." Within this context, this class will strive to understand the unique calling of spiritual formation – what challenges present themselves, how our personalities come to bear on our walk with Christ, and how we might include practices in our lives that coordinate with the Holy Spirit's transforming presence. The Psalms have been central to the spiritual formation of Christians throughout history. The Psalms contain honest, appropriate expressions of emotion to God. As such, they are valuable passages for study and reflection as we seek to grow in intimate relationship with God. Special emphasis will be placed on the way in which we, as Christians, in light of Christ, ought to read and appropriate the Psalms.

NOTE: in 2019/2020 Spiritual Formation & Psalms was separated into two courses - BI1022 Psalms (2 credit hours), and GE1012 Spiritual Formation (2 credit hours). Students who previously took only one of these courses, have the option of taking half of the current course. The "half-course" designations are as follows: GE1021 Psalms (1 credit hour), and GE1121 Spiritual Formation (1 credit hour).

CM1042 (CM1041 - Deacon's Track) Introduction to Church Ministry - 2 Hour

This course will introduce freshmen to the spiritual requirements and practical aspects of ministry in their local church.

Year Three Yearly Core Courses

BI3013 Historical Books II: 1 Kings-Esther - 3 Hours

This class provides an introduction to the latter historical books of the Old Testament (1 Kings – Esther). These books document the spiritual decline of Israel following the kingship of David. This decline resulted in the defeat and exile of God's people. From exile, God's people turned back to him and he restored them to the land he gave them.

PR3012/PR3022 Leadership Practicum - 2 Hours

The Leadership Practicum is an opportunity for third year students to get more hands on ministry with greater responsibility in the area of leadership and discipleship, then their student ministry experience. Every effort is made to provide a ministry experience that connects to the student's sense of direction in ministry in the future. An expectation for each practicum is that the student will serve in some leadership capacity and 'taste' first hand what it means to do that ministry as a team member and occasionally functioning as a team leader.

CM3043 Communicating the Bible - 3 Hours

Having the ability to communicate the message of the Bible is of vital importance in the life of every believer. This is the good news that God has given to His people and it must be shared as commanded by the Lord in His Word. This course will equip the student with a trustworthy framework that will effectively communicate God’s original message to a modern audience. NBC believes in and promotes a complementarian understanding of the roles of men and women. Since everyone should be able to communicate the Bible, both men and women will be equipped with the same skills, but NBC desires that the student use these skills in the appropriate setting.

NOTE: Prior to 2022/2023, the fourth year internship was divided into two course designations (one/semester): PR4016 Ministry Internship I (6 credit hours), and PR4026 Ministry Internship II (6 credit hours). Practically, because the fourth year internship must be completed in its entirety, and is graded accordingly, it is now one course designation, to be completed over the course of the student’s fourth year.

BI-4143 (4th Yr.) Gospel and Letters of John - 3 Hours Fall 2020, Fall 2023

This course is a thorough-going study of the Gospel of John, which distinguishes itself from the other three Gospel accounts by taking the form of a doctrinal, theological treatise, as much as an historical account. Apostle John wrote his Gospel for Jews and Gentiles, the whole world, all who would believe that Jesus is the prophesied Christ, the Creator God in human flesh. He records the Lord Jesus’ first coming in the flesh to announce the Gospel of His Kingdom to Israel, and to establish the prophesied New Covenant for Israel and all nations with His blood. The final two weeks of the course are devoted to a similar study of Apostle John’s three letters to Jewish and Gentile proselyte believers in Jesus, living in the diaspora outside of the Land of Israel.

BI-4053 Major Prophets I: Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations - 3 Hours Winter 2021, Winter 2024

This class provides an introduction to the books of Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Lamentations. These books contain powerful messages originally given to the people of Judah as God’s method of calling a wayward people back to Himself. As people of God who still find ourselves “prone to wander” these books are applicable to our lives as we seek to walk ever more closely with God. Throughout these books, the seriousness of sin and its consequences will be seen. Lamentations also provides an example of an appropriate expression of grief over sin and its consequences.

God's people still struggle with many of the same issues in the contemporary Church that Timothy and Titus struggled with. The Pastoral Epistles contain solutions to these difficult ministry and life challenges and so must be examined in depth.

CM3013 (Sr./4th Yr.) Leadership Dynamics - 3 HoursFall 2020, Fall 2022

Leadership is at once a privilege and a daunting task not to undertake lightly. If one is to lead well, one must know his/her God, the Scriptures, the times, and the people one is to lead. One also must have attitudes that Jesus preached and modelled. Through an interactive classroom setting, the student will come away with practical ways of leading with character. GE215 Sexual Ethics - 2 Hours Fall 2019

God's Word stands in stark contrast with Western culture in many areas. None is so evident than the realm of sexuality. By examination of the unchanging Scriptures, the modern Christian, whether young/old, married/single/divorced, man or woman, is challenged first with truth. Then one will be able to evaluate various aberrations, perversions, and options previous generations never had to deal with.

This course is devoted to addressing and affirming the historicity of the biblical creation account.

BT429 Theology Lectureship: Introduction to Biblical Theology - 2 Hours Winter 2020

This class will be lecture-based, with ample opportunity for student interaction and engagement. We will spend much of our time directly engaging with Scripture itself with the prayer that God, through Scripture, will directly engage with us, transforming us into His image as we behold His glory (2 Corinthians 3:18).

NOTE: This course may have been called Biblical Theology Overview in some documents.

GE2113 Biblical Backgrounds - 3 Hours Fall 2020

This course will equip students to better understand both the original (human) author and the original audience of the biblical text by introducing the geographical, political, and cultural background of the Bible and by assisting them in applying that knowledge to their study of the Bible.

GE2213 Marriage and Family - 3 Hours Fall 2020

Focusing on the many Biblical texts which teach God's purposes and imperatives for the family, this interactive course encourages the student to learn, internalize, and practice His ways as it relates to building a family. It will be necessary to compare God's ways to the ways of the world and see how and why the latter fall woefully short—with inherent consequences. We will also look at how the family is a symbol of our relationship with God.

GE1212 The Bible and Money - 2 Hours Winter 2021

When Jesus said, “You cannot serve both God and money,” He was saying this just as much to us today, as He was to the audience who first heard those words. Through a search of the Biblical texts on the topic of money/wealth (and there are many!), we will learn what God’s perspective on earthly wealth is. The goal is to internalize the Biblical principles so as to be able to make decisions about money/wealth for eternal purposes.

GE2123 Biblical Greek I - 3 Hours Winter 2020, Fall 2021

This class is an introduction to Koine Greek as a basis for reading and interpreting the Greek New Testament as a foundation for Bible study and exegesis. God’s Word remains the same. NOTE: In 2023/2024 this course was updated to GE3124 (4-Credit Course)

GE3124 Biblical Greek I - 4 Hours Fall 2023

This class is an introduction to Koine Greek as a basis for reading and interpreting the Greek New Testament as a foundation for Bible study and exegesis. God’s Word remains the same. The problem is that the languages into which the Bible is translated are living languages where word meanings are not static.

GE2223 Cults & Other False Teachings - 3 Hours Fall 2021

The apostle Paul warned the recipients of his letters many times about false teachers. There were apostates in his day, and he advised that there would be many more to come—even calling them “doctrines of demons.” Here we are, 2000 years later, and was he ever right! All around us there are teachings which masquerade as “Christian” but are pointing to another saviour, other holy books, and false prophets. The modern Christian needs to know his or her Bible and its essential doctrines well so as to resist the ever-growing number of religious systems which like the ethics of Christianity but not the Triune God of the Bible. We need to know the core teachings of Scripture and be able to use them to refute the attacks of the evil one—and win the lost to a Saviour who died for all sinners— including those trapped in wrong religious beliefs.

TH2102 Introduction to Biblical Theology - 2 Hours (January Mod.) Winter 2022

In this class we’ll seek to understand what Biblical theology is and how it works. Then, we’ll put what we’ve learned to work as we explore the plot structure of the Bible. Finally, we’ll identify our own place within that plot, and review some of what this all means for our lives today.

TH2103 Theology of Worship - 3 Hours Winter 2022

In many North American churches, “worship” has become synonymous with singing. This is a departure both from the early Christian understanding of worship as well as the historic Protestant understanding of worship. This course will help equip students to regain a more comprehensive understanding of worship by examining the biblical and theological underpinnings of worship from a historically Protestant point of view, inviting us into a deeper worship of the Triune God.

CM2012 Women’s Ministry - 2 Hours (January Mod.) Winter 2022

Focusing on the Bible passage of Titus 2 which teaches God’s design and purposes for women’s ministry, this interactive course encourages the student to learn, internalize, and practice His ways as it relates to being a godly woman who is engaged in a lifestyle of ministry.
